To: All ASNR Members

SUBJECT: Foundation Outstanding Contributions in Research Award Nominations

The Foundation of the ASNR Outstanding Contributions in Research Award Committee is seeking nominations for next year's award, which will be presented at the 2012 ASNR Annual Meeting in New York City. The award is meant to recognize a lifetime achievement in research, particularly those who have attracted external funding for their work.

The past recipients listed below have consistently produced outstanding scientific work throughout their careers. As researchers, they have contributed greatly to our field, and the care of our patients, and are truly deserving of this recognition.

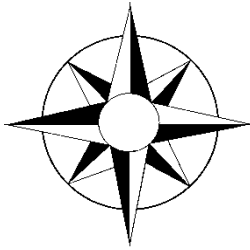

2004	Robert I. Grossman, M.D.
2005	Dixon M. Moody, M.D.
2006	No Recipient
2007	Clifford R. Jack, M.D.
2008	A. James Barkovich, M.D.
2009	R. Gilberto Gonzalez, M.D., Ph.D.
2010	Victor M. Haughton, M.D.
2011	Thomas P. Naidich, M.D.

Please review the criteria on the following page, and submit your letter of nomination to the Awards Coordinator, Bonnie Mack, via e-mail (bmack@asnr.org) by 9:00 AM Central Time, Friday, September 30, 2011. In the nomination letter, please be certain to include a paragraph or two indicating the nominee's accomplishments and, if possible, include a copy of the candidate's CV. Please do not notify the candidate of his/her nomination.

Sincerely,

Thomas P. Naidich, M.D., Chairman
Foundation Outstanding Contributions in Research Awards Committee

Outstanding Contributions in Research Award

PURPOSE: This award recognizes neuroradiologists who have demonstrated consistent excellence and lifelong accomplishment in basic or clinical neuroscience research, particularly funded research from the NIH, NSF, March of Dimes, etc.

ELIGIBILITY: A Senior ASNR member, fifty years of age or older, with long-term achievements in clinical or basic research.

NOMINATIONS: All members of the Society may submit nominations, as follows:

- ◆ Nominations must be submitted via e-mail, citing a particular line of investigation, e.g., "Dr. X for his work with imaging of brain function and activation." Letters of nomination must include one or two paragraphs of support (indicating what the nominee has accomplished). If possible, a CV of the nominee would be appreciated with the nomination, providing it does not compromise the confidentiality of the nomination.
- ◆ Confidentiality is essential. If possible, the candidate should not be aware of his/her nomination.

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS: Please send nominations by 9:00 AM Central Time on Friday, September 30, 2011 to Bonnie Mack, Awards Coordinator, at bmack@asnr.org. On the subject line of the e-mail, indicate: Outstanding Contributions in Research Award. Attach your nomination letter (and nominee's CV, if available) as a Word or pdf document.

EXCLUSIONS: Current Officers of the Society, members of the Executive Committee, and members of the Foundation Board of Trustees, and Foundation Outstanding Contributions in Research Award Committee are ineligible for nomination.

OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTIONS IN RESEARCH AWARD COMMITTEE: The recipient of this award will be selected by a group composed of the recipient of the previous year's award (as Chair), a senior Past-President with a strong research background, Chair of the Foundation Board (ex-officio), and Co-Chairs of the ASNR Research Committee. The committee would submit their recommendation to the Foundation Board for a final decision.

AWARD ACKNOWLEDGEMENT: The award recipient will receive a plaque, and will be acknowledged at the Awards Session.
